 - (e) to determine the remuneration of servants of the Association.

- (6) The annual general meeting may transact special business of which notice is given in accordance with these rules.
- (7) All general meetings other than the annual general meeting shall be called special general meetings.

15. Special General Meetings

- (1) The committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a special general meeting of the Association.
- (2) The committee shall, on the requisitions in writing of secretaries of not less than ten members, convene a special general meeting of the Association.
- (3) A requisition for a special general meeting shall state the object of the meeting and shall be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the office of the Association and may consist of several documents in the like form, each one signed by one or more of the requisitionists.
- (4) If the committee does not cause a special general meeting to be held within twenty-one days from the date on which a requisition therefore is deposited at the office of the Association, the requisitionists, or any of them, may convene the meeting; but any meeting so convened shall not be held after three months from the date of the deposit of the requisition.
- (5) A special general meeting convened by requisitionists in pursuance of these rules shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which those meetings are convened by the committee, and all reasonable expenses incurred in convening the meeting shall be refunded by the Association to the persons incurring them.

16. Notice of a General Meeting

The public officer of the Association shall, at least 14 days before the date fixed for holding a general meeting of the Association, cause to be inserted in at least one newspaper published in this State an advertisement specifying the place, day and time for holding of the meeting, and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat.

17. Conduct of a General Meeting

- (1) All business that is transacted at special general meetings and all business that is transacted at the annual general meeting, with the exception of that specially referred to in these rules as being ordinary business of the annual general meeting, shall be deemed special business.

- (2) No item of business shall be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under these rules to vote is present during the time when the meeting is considering that item.
- (3) Fifteen members personally present (being members entitled under these rules to vote thereat) constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting.
- (4) If within one hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; and in other cases it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and (unless another place is specified by the chairman at the time of adjournment or by written notice to members given before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

18. Chairman of a General Meeting

- (1) The president, or in his absence, the Senior Vice-President, or in the absence of both the President and the Senior Vice-President, the other Vice- President, shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Association.
- (2) If the President and both Vice-Presidents are absent from a general meeting, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside as chairman thereat.

19. Adjournment of General Meetings

- (1) The chairman of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which that adjournment took place.
- (2) Where a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, the like notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the original meeting.
- (3) Except as provided in the foregoing provisions of this rule, it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

20. Voting at General Meetings

- (1) A question arising at a general meeting of the Association shall be determined on a show of hands and unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried, or carried unanimously, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association is evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, the resolution.

- (2) Upon any question arising at a general meeting of the Association, a member has one vote only.
- (3) All votes shall be given personally.
- (4) In the case of an equality of voting on a question the chairman of the meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.
- (5) If at a meeting a poll on any question is demanded it shall be taken at that meeting in such a manner as the chairman may direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting on that question.
- (6) A poll that is demanded on the election of a chairman, or on a question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith, and a poll that is demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time before the close of the meeting as the chairman may direct.

21. Election of Office Bearers

- (1) The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a committee of management constituted as provide in rule 23.
- (2) The committee:
 - (a) shall control and manage the business and affairs of the Association;
 - (b) may, subject to these rules, exercise all such powers and functions as may be exercised by the Association, other than those powers and functions that are required by these rules to be exercised by general meetings of members of the Association; and
 - (c) subject to the Act and these rules, has power to perform all such acts and things as appear to the committee to be essential for the proper management of the business and affairs of the Association.

22. Officers of the Association

 - (a) a President;
 - (b) two Vice- Presidents;
 - (c) a Treasurer; and
 - (d) a Secretary.

- (2) One of the Vice-Presidents shall be known as Senior Vice-President.
- (3) The provisions of sub-rules (2), (3) and (4) of rule 24, so far as they are applicable and with the necessary modifications, apply to and in relation to the election of persons to any of the office mentioned in sub-rule (1) of this rule.
- (4) Each officer of the Association shall hold office until the annual general meeting next after the date of his election but is eligible for re-election.
- (5) In the event of a casual vacancy in any office mentioned in sub- rule (1) of this rule, the committee may appoint one of its members to the vacant office, and the member so appointed may continue in office up to and including the conclusion of the annual general meeting next following the date of his appointment.

23. Committee

- (1) The committee shall consist of:
 - (a) the officers of the Association; and
 - (b) at least ten and not more than thirteen other members, all of whom shall be elected at the annual general meeting of the Association in each year.
- (2) Each ordinary committeeman shall, subject to these rules, hold office until the annual general meeting next after the date of his election, but is eligible for re-election.
- (3) In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the office of ordinary committeeman, the committee may appoint a member of the Association to fill the vacancy, and the member so appointed shall hold office, subject to these rules until the conclusion of the annual general meeting next following the date of his appointment.

24. Nominations of candidates

- (1) Nominations of candidates for election as officers of the Association or as ordinary committeeman:
 - (a) shall be made in writing signed by two members of the Association and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of nomination); and
 - (b) shall be delivered to the public officer of the Association at least ten days before the date fixed for the holding of the annual general meeting.
- (2) If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the committee, all candidates nominated shall be deemed to be elected and further nominations shall be received at the annual general meeting.
- (3) If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the persons nominated shall be deemed to be elected.

- (4) If the number of nominations exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot shall be held.
- (5) The ballot for the election of officers and ordinary committeemen shall be conducted at the annual general meeting in such usual and proper manner as the committee may direct.

25. Vacancy of Office

For the purposes of these rules, the office of an officer of the Association or of an ordinary committeeman becomes vacant if an officer or committeeman:

- (a) dies;
- (b) becomes bankrupt or applies to take or takes advantage of any law relating to bankrupt or insolvent debtors or compounds with his creditors, or makes any assignment of his estate for their benefit;

- (h) fails to pay all arrears of subscription due by him within fourteen days after he has received a notice in writing signed by the public officer stating that he has ceased to be a financial member of the Association.

26. Management of the Association

- (1) The committee shall meet as often as is required and not less than six times a year, at such place and at such times as the committee may determine.
- (2) Special meetings of the committee may be convened by the President, or any four of its members.
- (3) Notice shall be given to members of the committee of any special meeting, specifying the general nature of the business to be transacted, and no other business shall be transacted at such a meeting.
- (4) Any seven members of the committee constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a meeting of the committee.

- (5) No business shall be transacted unless a quorum is present and if within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same place and at the same hour of the same day in the following week unless the meeting was a special meeting, in which case it lapses.
- (6) At a meeting of the committee:
 - (a) The President, or in his absence the Senior Vice-President, or in the absence of both the President and the Senior Vice-President, the other Vice-President; or
 - (b) if the President and the two Vice- Presidents are absent, such one of the remaining members of the committee as may be chosen by the members present shall preside.

27. Disclosure of Interest by a Committee Member

- (1) A member of the committee who is interested in any contract or arrangement made or proposed to be made with the Association shall disclose his interest at the first meeting of the committee at which the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration, if his interest then exists, or, in any other case, at the first meeting of the committee after the acquisition of his interest.
- (2) If a member of the committee becomes interested in a contract or arrangement after it is made or entered into he shall disclose his interest at the first meeting of the committee after he becomes so interested.
- (3) No member of the committee shall vote as a member of the committee in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is interested and if he does so vote his vote shall not be counted.

28. Appointment of Sub-committees

- (1) The committee may at any time appoint a sub-committee from the committee as it may think fit and shall prescribe the powers and functions thereof.
- (2) The committee may co-opt as members of a sub-committee such persons as it thinks fit, whether or not those persons are members of the Association, but a person so co-opted is not entitled to vote.
- (3) Three appointed members of a subcommittee constitute a quorum at a meeting of the sub-committee.
- (4) The public officer of the Association is responsible for calling meetings of a sub-committee.

- (5) Written notice of each sub-committee meeting shall be served on each member of the sub-committee by delivering it to him at a reasonable time before the meeting or by sending it by post in a pre-paid letter addressed to him at his last known place of abode in time to reach him in due course of post before the date of the meeting.

29. Association Executive

The President, the Vice Presidents, the Treasurer and the Secretary constitute an executive committee

30. Membership Subscription
